

---

Meet the Contributors

The Boller Review 2020

---

Brooklyn Baldwin

College of Education

Brooklyn Baldwin graduated from TCU in May 2020 with a bachelor's degree in education. She was a double major in Secondary Education and Spanish and Hispanic Studies. Brooklyn has accepted her first teaching job at Carroll High School where she will be teaching Spanish 2. Brooklyn's intent in completing this research was to help her be better prepared to teach during the COVID pandemic in the Fall of 2020. The purpose of this research was to ensure that students who are learning online receive the same quality of education as the students who will be learning the content in person.

Michael Brown

Bob Schieffer College of Communication

Michael Brown is a 2020 graduate of TCU with majors from both the Neeley School of Business and the Schieffer College of Communications. Michael loved his time at TCU, where he founded the TCU Aviation Club and was a member of the spirit organization, the Rangers. Brown is currently in his first year at Tulane University's School of Law. Outside of academia, Michael enjoys spending time with friends and family on the banks of the Tennessee River in his home town of Chattanooga. He loves history, is a FAA-rated seaplane pilot, and a devoted fan of his Atlanta Braves.

Chloe Campos

John V. Roach Honors College

Chloe Campos is currently a senior in the accounting program at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. She will start graduate school Fall of 2021 and expects to graduate with my Master's degree and be CPA eligible in May 2022. She has always had a passion to assist others to the best of her ability and her work ethic corresponds to that passion. Whether it be volunteering her time to community service or working overtime to lighten the workload for her coworkers, she understands that hard work, determination, and perseverance will help her achieve her goals as a professional.

Erika Rebollo Diaz

John V. Roach Honors College

Born and raised in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico until age 11, Erika is a sophomore computer science major from Frisco, TX. She is passionate about empowering other women, especially those in STEM fields. She is the founding president of a group of women starting a new chapter of Kappa Delta Chi Sorority, Inc. at TCU, and is working to make this into a diverse, empowering, multicultural home for driven women on campus. She loves giving campus tours and meeting new people, and wants to one day travel the world through her career and remaining studies.

Bailey Flynn

College of Education

Bailey Flynn is from Nashville, TN. She received her undergraduate degree from Texas Christian University in Middle Secondary Social Studies with a minor in studio art with an emphasis in painting. She aspires to be a middle school social studies teacher who engages with her students using art, history, and interactive activities. She believes that students should take an active role in their learning and using discussion strategies they can deepen their wealth of knowledge. Outside of academia Bailey competed for 4 years on the Texas Christian University Swim Team. This inspires her to maintain a healthy lifestyle. In her free time she enjoys cooking, reading, and knitting. thesis.

---

Alexa Hines

Bob Schieffer College of Communication

Alexa Hines graduated magna cum laude from TCU in May 2020 as an honors laureate with a Bachelors of Arts in journalism and a Spanish minor. During her time at TCU, Alexa worked as an editor and reporter for TCU360 and a social media for TCU Football. She also was an active member of her sorority, Alpha Chi Omega, and served in many leadership positions. After graduation, Alexa returned home to California and pursued her passions for sports and social media. She is currently working as a Sports Marketing Associate for Pando in San Francisco.

Jordan Joyce

Neeley School of Business

Jordan Joyce graduated cum laude from TCU in 2020 with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and Finance Real Estate. While at TCU, Jordan was an active member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority and of the John V. Roach Honors College. Jordan hopes to continue pursuing a career in the finance industry.

Alexandra Lang

John V. Roach Honors College

Alexandra Lang is a journalism and political science double major from San Antonio, Texas. She is the Executive Editor of The Skiff. After graduation, she plans on attending law school and pursuing a career in either law or journalism. Along with her passions for politics and writing, she has loved showtunes since her childhood, and she is excited to see her interests combine for this project.

Rose Lavilla

Harris College of Nursing & Health Sciences

Rose LaVilla is currently an advanced standing Master of Social Work student. She her Bachelor of Social Work, magna cum laude, in May of 2020. She was the recipient of the TCU Dean Scholarship and was awarded the Charlotte and Kirk French Scholarship for Social Work at TCU for the 2018-2019 academic year. Rose is a member of the Phi Alpha National Social Work Honor Society. In 2018, Rose presented her work focusing on enhancing student diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) at TCU at the CRES Student Research and Creativity Symposium. In 2019, she was invited to present her research at the Harris College Student Research Symposium. After graduation in May 2021, Rose intends to obtain her license and practice as an LMSW, working with individuals who suffer from mental health difficulties. A few of Rose's favorite things are her Shih Tzu named Little Bear, Green Bay Packers, turquoise waters, snorkeling, lavender, hummingbirds, and phalaenopsis orchids. Most of all, she is thankful for her family and grateful for God's grace and the love of Jesus.

Robert Molina

AddRan College of Liberal Arts

Robert Molina is a sophomore with an expected Bachelors of Science in Biology and minors in Chemistry and Spanish for Health Professions. Robert's admiration for the Medical field as well as his interest for social reform regarding Public Health was the catalyst for his topic of research during the time in his upper-level Spanish course his freshman year. In the future, he plans to attend Medical School and soon after, join a non-profit organization known as Doctors Without Borders in the hopes of delivering emergency medical aid to people affected by armed conflict, epidemics, natural disasters, and exclusion from healthcare.

Nell Gray Rasmussen

College of Fine Arts

Nell Gray Rasmussen is a recent graduate from Texas Christian University where she double majored in Fashion Merchandising and Graphic Design Studies. Outside of the classroom, you could find her giving tours around campus and spending time with her Chi Omega sisters. She recently moved to Dallas, Texas where so continues to pursue both her passions of fashion and design. Nell Gray is an enthusiastic and eager creative who fills her time with freelance design and illustration projects.

Kavi Nallamala

Harris College of Nursing & Health Sciences

Kavi Nallamala is pursuing her Masters in Speech and Hearing Science at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Kavi graduated from Texas Christian University in May 2020 with a Bachelor of Science in Speech-Language Pathology where she studied the written language of children with a Specific Language Impairment. In her free time, Kavi enjoys spending time as a jail advocate for victims of human trafficking. She is passionate about helping women and children who are vulnerable both through her volunteer efforts and her chosen profession. She seeks ways to help people better communicate and advocate for themselves.

Ann Tran

AddRan College of Liberal Arts

Ann Tran is currently a PhD student in the American Studies & Ethnicity Department at the University of Southern California. She got her bachelor's degree(s) in English and History at TCU, where she was highly involved with the International Students Association and the Chancellor's Leadership Program. As a scholar of Asian/American cultural history, her work examines the intersections of race, war, and public memory.

Quang Truong

College of Science & Engineering

Quang Truong is a rising Computer Science junior at Texas Christian University. He has conducted research on Artificial Intelligence and other related fields under the supervision of Dr. Bo Mei. His research focuses on Computer Vision, Image Processing, Pattern Recognition, and Machine Learning. Besides his dedication to researching, he also makes great endeavors to advance in Algorithms and Mathematics. His team of three TCU students achieved a Bronze Medal at ACM-ICPC 2019 South Central USA Regional Contest – an annual competitive programming competition. He also won the first prize at the TCU Calculus Bee in 2019.

Lillian Vernor

College of Science & Engineering

Lilly Vernor is a TCU class of 2020 graduate. She graduated with a major in Mathematics and a minor in Spanish. She is now attending University of Houston to pursue a Master of Science in Data Science & Statistics. She enjoyed working with TCU athletics during her undergrad as well as being a part of the Honors College. She also worked as a desk assistant at the Honors College and enjoyed getting to know the Honors staff. Additionally, through the Honors College, she got the opportunity to work with Dr. Hanson on her departmental honors project. She can't believe her 4 years at TCU are over. Go frogs!

Austin Williams

College of Fine Arts

Austin Williams is a Fort Worth-based artist who graduated from TCU in May of 2020 with a Bachelor's of Science in Biology with minors in Studio Art and Chemistry. In this body of work, the artist has used their life-long passion for art and science to cope with an intense fear of dying and encourage others to contemplate the finiteness of life. By researching the intersection of spirituality and mortality, Austin further prepares himself to care for patients as a future medical doctor.

Matt Williams

Neeley School of Business

Matt Williams is currently an Operations Innovation Analyst at DaVita within their Redwoods Leadership Development Program. He graduated from Texas Christian University in 2020 as a Finance major and Spanish and Hispanic Studies minor, where he developed interests in the financial management of higher education, healthcare strategy, and intercultural immersion. While a student, Matt filled his time by leading in organizations such as the Student Government Association, Student Foundation, Neeley Fellows, Frog Camp, and Beta Theta Pi. Outside of his career and studies, Matt enjoys exploring in his community—from the hiking trails to the craft ice cream shops.

Destinee Wilson

John V. Roach Honors College

Destinee Wilson is a senior majoring in Political Science and minoring in Criminal Justice and Psychology from Fort Walton Beach, Florida. She will start law school in Fall 2021 and expects to pursue a career in social justice. She has a passion for law, politics, women's rights, and advocacy. She is continually looking for ways to bring about impactful change. At TCU, she is heavily involved on campus. She is most proud of her position as the executive director of Lead NOW, where she works to create empowering and educational events for women while promoting engagement in the greater community.

